

Psalm 23

Introduction

What if King David, credited with writing the original Psalm 23, were alive today and working in the modern workplace? How might he sing God's praise and write of his confidence in God's providence? This anonymously written version of Psalm 23 might just be a what a modern King David would write.

Psalm 23 (Revised)

The Lord is my real boss, and I shall not want. He gives me peace, when chaos is all around me. He gently reminds me to pray and do all things without murmuring and complaining.

He reminds me that He is my source and not my job. He restores my sanity everyday and guides my decisions that I might honor Him in all that I do.

Even though I face absurd amounts of emails, system crashes, unrealistic deadlines, budget cutbacks, gossiping co-workers, discriminating supervisors and an aging body that doesn't cooperate every morning, I sill will not stop for He is with me! His presence, His peace and His power will see m through.

He raises me up even when they fail to promote me. He claims me as His own, even when the company threatens to let me go. His Faithfulness and love is better than any bonus check.

His retirement plan beats any 401K there is! When it's all said and done, I'll be working for Him a whole lot longer and for that, I bless His name!
